

GENERAL INSURANCE
CODE OF PRACTICE

FOREWORD

As the Assistant Treasurer and Minister for Competition Policy and Consumer Affairs, I have a strong interest in ensuring our financial and insurance markets are open and transparent.

The General Insurance Code of Practice supports these ideals as it is a voluntary system which raises customer service standards in the Australian insurance industry and protects the rights of policyholders.

Since the Code's inception in 2006, more than 90% of the industry's general insurance providers have become signatories to the Code.

The general insurance industry is a critical part of the Australian economy providing risk protection to underpin economic growth for Australia. The general insurance industry employs approximately 60,000 people and pays out an average of $76 million dollars in claims each business day demonstrating the important role the industry plays in Australia's dynamic economy.

The Australian Government welcomes the continued use by industry of codes of practice and believes that they are practical examples of where alternatives to regulation can be effective in improving consumer protection.

The Code requires general insurers to put in place internal and external dispute resolution services. The Government recognises the importance of accessible and effective dispute resolution services in the industry. Well functioning dispute resolution services are essential to consumers who suffer detriment or losses from breaches of the law by providing speedy, fair and practical resolution of general insurance disputes at lower costs than alternative routes, particularly the courts.

There is a high level of consumer knowledge and awareness of the Code with Insurance Council figures indicating that 80% of Australian consumers are aware that the general insurance industry has a Code of Practice.

I am grateful for the opportunity to provide my thoughts on the Code and I look forward to its continued success.

The Hon Chris Bowen MP
Assistant Treasurer, Minister for Competition Policy and Consumer Affairs

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 We are committed to raising standards of service to our customers. This voluntary Code sets out the minimum standards we will uphold in the services we provide to you.
- 1.2 The 1994 General Insurance Code of Practice remains in effect for all insurance contracts which were covered by that Code and which were entered into before adopting this Code¹.
- 1.3 But all policies taken out and new claims received by us² after we have adopted this Code will be covered by this Code³.
- 1.4 This Code covers all general insurance products except workers compensation, marine insurance⁴, medical indemnity insurance⁵, and compulsory third party insurance including where there is linked driver protection cover⁶. It does not cover reinsurance.
- 1.5 This Code does not apply to life and health insurance products issued by:
 - a) life insurers; or
 - b) registered health insurers.
- 1.6 Under a co-insurance arrangement, if one or more of the insurers has not adopted this Code, then that policy is not covered by this Code.
- 1.7 Members of the Insurance Council of Australia, other industry participants and service providers may adopt this Code⁷.
- 1.8 This Code operates together with the many laws governing the financial integrity and conduct of the general insurance industry.
- 1.9 Where there is any conflict or inconsistency between this Code and any Commonwealth, State or Territory law, that law prevails.
- 1.10 Where this Code imposes an obligation on us in addition to obligations applying under a law, we will also comply with this Code except where doing so would lead to a breach of a law.
- 1.11 FOS is responsible for monitoring our compliance with this Code.
- 1.12 This Code does not provide to you or anyone else any legal entitlement or right of action against us, other than that you may:
 - a) ask us to address a matter;
 - b) report your concerns to FOS; and/or
 - c) access our complaints handling procedures (see section 6).

- 1.13 If we fail to meet our obligations under this Code the Code Compliance Committee may impose sanctions on us (see section 7).
- 1.14 An independent party will be appointed by the Insurance Council of Australia to review this Code every three years⁸.
- 1.15 The review will consider whether this Code operates in accordance with its objectives. It will be conducted in consultation with FOS, the Insurance Council of Australia, insurers, consumer and business representatives, and ASIC.
- 1.16 In addition to the formal review of this Code, the Insurance Council of Australia will consult with FOS, consumer and business representatives, and other stakeholders to develop this Code on an ongoing basis.
- 1.17 The objectives of this Code are:
- a) to promote better, more informed relations between insurers and their customers;
 - b) to improve consumer confidence in the general insurance industry;
 - c) to provide better mechanisms for the resolution of complaints and disputes between insurers and their customers; and
 - d) to commit insurers and the professionals they rely upon to higher standards of customer service.
- 1.18 The objectives of this Code will be pursued and its provisions applied, having regard to:
- a) the requirement of insurers to meet the prudential standards established under the Insurance Act 1973;
 - b) the fact that insurance contracts and arrangements between customers and insurers are governed by the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, the Corporations Act, 2001 and the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001;
 - c) the duty of utmost good faith and the fact that the insurance contract is the governing document of the relationship of the customer and insurer; and
 - d) the need for effective competition and cost efficiency in the general insurance industry, and flexibility in the development and enhancement of products and services for customers.
- 1.19 Definitions are included at the end of this Code.

1 Details of transitional arrangements (including technical matters relating to compliance monitoring, investigation and sanctions applying under the former Code) are available, on request, from Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS).

2 New claims received by us after we have adopted this Code will be covered by sections 3, 4 and 6 of this Code.

3 The 1994 General Insurance Code of Practice will continue to apply to all policies of companies in run-off prior to 18 July 2006.

4 This Code does not cover marine insurance under the Marine Insurance Act 1906. It does cover pleasure craft covered by the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

5 This Code does not apply to medical indemnity cover for health care professionals under a contract of insurance within the meaning of the Medical Indemnity (Prudential Supervision and Product Standards) Act 2003.

6 Ask us if your policy is covered under this Code.

7 A register of all those who have agreed to adopt this Code is available from FOS.

8 Subsequent reviews will be arranged three years after the implementation of the initial review.
